Press Release

Film Screening and Discussion with Oleg Sentsov in Tbilisi

In cooperation with the Ukrainian Embassy in Tbilisi and PEN Center Georgia, the ADAMI Media Prize is organizing a film screening and a following discussion with the filmmaker and former political prisoner Oleg Sentsov. The documentary film “From Crimea to Siberia - How Russia is tormenting political prisoners Sentsov and Kolchenko” by Anna Tsygyma and Angelina Kariakina (produced by Hromadske TV, Ukraine) received an ADAMI Special Mention in 2018. It documents the absurd journey of the Ukrainian filmmaker Oleg Sentsov and the activist Oleksandr Kolchenko inside the Russian penitentiary system that followed their capture in Crimea during the 2014 annexation for allegedly “plotting terrorist acts”.

The film screening and discussion will be held on Thursday, February 20 at 18.30 in the Cinema House in Tbilisi (52 Shota Rustaveli Ave).

About the ADAMI Media Prize:

The ADAMI Media Prize was created to encourage filmmakers, journalists, and audio-visual media professionals in the EU Eastern Partnership countries to promote topics of migration, tolerance, and cultural diversity. The prize rewards outstanding TV, film, and online programmes, that deal with diversity-related issues. Alongside the prize, ADAMI organizes several events for networking and fosters exchange among media professionals in Eastern Europe and the EU.
