

ADAMI Awards 2020: Winners Announced at Spectacular TV Show Celebrating Diversity

This year's ADAMI Media Prize winners were revealed in an entertaining show broadcasted in the Eastern Partnership Countries

“It's Diversity That Unites Us!” was the motto of the ADAMI Awards 2020. The ADAMI Media Prize for Cultural Diversity in Eastern Europe is the most prestigious media award for TV, film and online work on ethnic, religious and cultural diversity topics in the Eastern Partnership Countries - Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Georgia, Moldova and Ukraine.

On 17 December, prize winners were announced during a TV show produced in cooperation with the Georgian Public Broadcaster (GPB), Teleradio Moldova and Espresso TV (Kyiv). EU Ambassador to Georgia, Carl Hartzell, was the show's special guest of honour.

Charming hosts Elene Kalandadze (GPB), Doina Stimpovschi (TRM) and Tetiana Litvinova (Espresso TV) presented the nominated works and awards as they sat by candlelight at socially-distanced “dinners for one”.

Due to COVID-19 restrictions, most ADAMI Award nominees took part via live video conference, and prize winners were announced by Georgian singer and Voice of Germany contest winner, Natia Todua.
